

THE MUSIC DISTRICT FACT SHEET

- The Music District LLC is a Fort Collins music hub designed for musicians; music-related businesses and nonprofits; and music lovers of all varieties. For the novice or pro, the Music District is a place where people can hone their craft, learn the business, connect with community and share and enjoy music.
- Located at 619 to 639 S. College Ave., the Music District is a five-building, 57,000 square foot campus with communal areas and music industry co-working spaces; community radio and multimedia space; rehearsal rooms; retail spaces; and spaces for short-term music residencies.
- Many of the Music District activities will be free and open to the public and others will be fee-based.
- The local music community will activate the Music District with programming and events, and the Music District will showcase and enhance Fort Collins as a dynamic and vibrant music city.
- The Music District will connect Fort Collins to regional, national and international music communities through collaborative programming, partnerships and gatherings.
- The Music District will foster additional collaborations between educational institutions and the Fort Collins music community.
- The Music District programming and services are designed for those who are young adults and older.
- The Music District is slated to open in September, 2016. Visit themusicdistrict.org for more information.
